On May 27, at Bangkok, EMINA EUGENIA

ADDISON, the daughter of Mr. T. G. JOY.

Count Inoue, Japanese Minister to Korea,

has recovered from pleurisy, but is now suffering

from chronic rheumatism.

Commenting on this, the Yokohama Specimen, while it asserts that it does not know how much of the report is true, it says that it is "very probable" that the reformer's efforts to cause Korea to be a free country are not free from the national spirit.

It writes, "we cannot but feel that the

THE TREATY OF PEACE.

The following interesting treatise, from the Asahi of Tokyo, dated the 14th inst., is based on the information contained in the translations of a number of "notes" exchanged between the special representatives of China and Japan at Shimonoseki and which were recently published in extenso by our Tientsin contemporary the Peking and Tientsin Times.

As a preliminary to the negotiations, the Japanese plenipotentiaries requested for an armistice while the negotiations were proceeding. The Japanese plenipotentiaries requested for an armistice while the negotiations were proceeding.
